Limited opportunity for talented applicants. No, not really, but it is an opportunity to increase the happiness of others- and your own- by serving tea and coffee once a month at the evening services. If you would like to do this from February 2018, please could you see Jess Rowe who waits in happy anticipation to hear from you and thanks you in advance.

Christmas Cards please would you let me have your Christmas cards, for next year's shoe boxes. If you could just give me the front picture, that would be even better! Thank you, Barbara Thompson.

After interviewing four of the seven applicants for the post of Community Engagement Worker last year, Shirley Wardle was offered, and accepted, the new role, with a view to starting on the 19th February this year. 3. Engagement and Growth in our worship times.
4. Openness to Signs and Wonders.

Thank you from Care and Share

Blackpool (Louise Ashworth) for monies raised at the Christmas Fair-"I am amazed at your generosity. This will make a dramatic difference to the hampers and emergency parcels that we deliver over this Christmas festive season. It is very good of you to consider Care and Share as a recipient of your fundraising. Many thanks from all of us at Care and Share and God bless you all this Christmas time."
