All Saints wants YOU! Behind the scenes of every service there is a small team making sure that there are words on the screen and microphones for the speakers. All Saints needs your help to ensure this provision continues to be available. No special experience with computers is required - if you can point and click, you're hired! All Saints also needs people willing to operate sound equipment, training will be provided.

RAABIT stands for read all about it, we are a group who are meeting the last Friday morning of each month between 10am to 12 in the Lounge we will be praying and discussing /presenting a different Christian book or film. As usual we will make time for a drink, biscuits & social interaction. One member will pick a book that they want to read or a film to watch and then give a review the following month. All are welcome don't worry if you don't want to do any presenting before the group that's fine, you just need a love of books or films. If you want any more information or would like to join us speak to Norma or just come along on the last Friday of the month.
