Prayer for Refugees and the Persecuted Church –Wednesday 6th December, 7-8pm in the meeting room. Due to Carols in the Car park being held on the 3rd Wednesday (20th), that one will not be taking place, so there will only be the one prayer meeting in December.

A big thank you to everybody for all the help with the Christmas Fair! Which has raised an amazing £1800 to date. Winner of the Bake Off, Kate Cridland, winner of Guess the weight of the cake, Barry Cridland and winners of Brian’s Christmas Quiz, Ben, Lucy and Henry Marsh

Christmas Cards, tables will be set up in the welcome area for Christmas cards, please put First name AND SURNAME on cards so the intended recipient can be identified.

Thursday 14th: Two Cheers for Christmas!

1. Warren Manor Carol Service at 11.00am. All welcome to attend.

2. Lancashire Sings Christmas at The Golden Eagle, Warren Drive at 7pm.

Open Vicarage – POSTPONED!

Unfortunately, this could only take place on the same night as the above events, Tuesday 14th, as well as being in a Greenhouse Week, so we are switching it to the run up to Easter. Please support the Lancashire Sings Christmas in our local pub that evening – see you there!

News on the potato rumbler we supplied to Calais.

It’s still very much needed and in operation with thankfulness in Calais. This was posted on the RCK Facebook page last week:-
